Experiential Learning - 2016-17

MOCK STOCK

Mock Stock was one of the initiatives by the college to present virtual market before the students and develops their abilities in buying and selling. Total 80 Students were actively participated. In this activity virtual products are provided to some students which should be sold by them and earn profit. Again virtual money is provided to some students to buy some products saving maximum money. At last that seller will be declared winner who will earn maximum profit among all the sellers and that buyer will be declared winner who will save maximum money among all buyer. This was very interesting and experiential learning platform provided by the college,
