	Aim: The aim of the FDP Orientation & Sensitization Programme was to enhance the professional competencies of faculty members by familiarizing them with contemporary teaching–learning practices, academic leadership roles, and ethical responsibilities in higher education. The programme sought to orient participants towards outcome-based education, innovative pedagogical tools, ICT-enabled teaching, research methodologies, and academic administration. It also aimed to sensitize teachers to national education policies, quality assurance mechanisms, and institutional governance, thereby strengthening their capacity to contribute effectively to academic excellence, student development, and institutional growth in a rapidly changing higher education environment. Outcome: The programme resulted in significant academic and professional enrichment of participants. Faculty members gained updated knowledge of modern pedagogical approaches, digital teaching tools, and assessment techniques suitable for blended and online learning environments. Participants developed a clearer understanding of research ethics, interdisciplinary approaches, and quality benchmarks in higher education. The programme enhanced confidence, leadership skills, and collaborative attitudes among teachers, enabling them to implement innovative classroom practices and student-centric methods. Overall, the FDP contributed to improved teaching effectiveness, academic planning, and institutional commitment towards quality enhancement and holistic development of learners.

13	Complete Activity Report (Description) The 10-day FDP Orientation & Sensitization Programme under the UGC–Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre was successfully conducted at Dayanand College of Commerce, Latur, from 6th November to 17th November 2025. The programme focused on key components of NEP 2020 such as holistic and multidisciplinary education, academic leadership, Indian Knowledge Systems, inclusive education, sustainability, skill development, digital pedagogy, research orientation, and student-centric learning. Eminent resource persons delivered interactive sessions. The FDP enhanced pedagogical skills, academic awareness, and professional competence of faculty members, contributing to quality enhancement in higher education.

Subject: Gratitude for Organizing the NEP Orientation and Sensitization program in online mode during 6th to 17th Nov. 2025.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I extend my sincere gratitude to UGC-Malaviya Mission Teacher training centre Doctor Harisingh Gaur Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (MP) for organising the NEP Orientation and Sensitization program in online mode during 6th to 17th Nov. 2025 in collaboration with Dayanand College of Commerce, Latur. The initiative proved to be highly enriching and beneficial for our faculty members.

The sessions were thoughtfully designed, well-coordinated, and delivered by distinguished resource persons. The programme not only enhanced pedagogical competencies but also inspired our faculty to adopt innovative teaching and research practices. We deeply appreciate the university's commitment to fostering academic excellence and professional growth.

We value our association with the university and look forward to more such collaborative initiatives in the future. Once again, thank you for your support and for making this programme a success.

With warm regards,
