Outcome: The outcomes of the program include improved awareness among participants about different types of cancer and their risk factors, better understanding of preventive practices and early detection methods, and increased motivation to adopt healthier lifestyle choices.

14. Complete Activity Report (Description)

The Awareness Program on Cancer Detection and Prevention was conducted successfully in our college with the participation of students and faculty members. A total of 55 participants were present for the session. The main objective of the programme was to create awareness about cancer, its early signs and symptoms, methods of early detection, and preventive measures. The session included informative talks on the importance of regular health check-ups, screening tests, and maintaining a healthy lifestyle such as a balanced diet, physical activity, and avoiding harmful habits like tobacco and alcohol consumption. Participants were also educated about reducing stigma and myths associated with cancer and the importance of timely medical consultation. Interactive discussions were held to clarify doubts and encourage active participation. The programme proved to be highly informative and impactful, helping participants gain valuable knowledge about cancer prevention and motivating them to spread awareness in their families and community.

Subject: Heartfelt Thanks for Your Valuable Contribution

Dear Dr. Priyanka Rathod Mam,

We would like to express our sincere gratitude for delivering such an informative and engaging talk on Cancer Prevention and Awareness. Your presentation was extremely insightful and helped us better understand the importance of early detection, healthy lifestyle choices, and spreading awareness within the community.

Your ability to explain complex medical information in a clear and approachable manner made the session very impactful. The knowledge you shared will certainly help us make more informed decisions and encourage others to be proactive about their health.

Thank you once again for taking the time to share your expertise and for your dedication to educating and inspiring others. It was truly an enlightening experience.

With sincere thanks and appreciation,
