By: Dr. Laxmikant N. Soni

Date of Activity: 25/08/2025

No. of Student Participants: 12

No. of Other Student (Audience): 39

Objectives of the Activity:

1. To enhance students' communication and speaking skills.
2. To develop critical thinking and analytical abilities among students.
3. To encourage teamwork, participation, and confidence in expressing opinions.
4. To help students understand the difference between hard work and smart work.
5. To create awareness about the importance of planning, efficiency, and consistent effort in achieving goals.
6. To improve listening skills and respect for diverse viewpoints during discussions.
7. To promote interactive and student-centered learning in the classroom.

Description of the Activity:

A Group Discussion activity on the topic “Hard Work vs Smart Work” was conducted in the classroom to encourage students to express their views, improve communication skills, and develop critical thinking abilities. The activity provided an interactive platform where students actively participated by sharing opinions, examples, and experiences related to the importance of hard work and smart work in achieving success.

Students were divided into groups, and each group discussed the topic from different perspectives. The discussion helped students understand the balance between dedication, efficiency, planning, and innovation in academic and professional life. The session was conducted in an engaging and disciplined manner, promoting teamwork and confidence among participants.
