Complete Activity Report (Description)

The Cultural Department organized a Storytelling Competition to encourage creativity, communication skills, and confidence among students. The competition provided a platform for participants to present stories with expression, imagination, and moral values. Students enthusiastically participated and showcased their storytelling talent through engaging and meaningful narratives. The event helped in improving public speaking, creativity, and presentation skills among participants. The judges appreciated the efforts and performances of all students and selected winners based on content, expression, and delivery. The competition was conducted successfully and achieved its objective of promoting literary and cultural development among students.
