13	Purpose/aim/objective and outcome of the event	Aim: The aim of the “Useful Clothes Donation to Latur Kapda Bank” programme is to support underprivileged people by collecting and donating usable clothes, promote the value of sharing and social responsibility among students and faculty, and reduce waste by reusing clothes in a meaningful way. The initiative also aims to encourage empathy, community service, and active participation in helping needy families through charitable contribution. Outcome: The outcomes of the programme include collection and successful donation of useful clothes to Latur Kapda Bank, increased awareness among participants about the importance of helping the poor and practicing reuse, and development of a sense of social responsibility and compassion.

14. Complete Activity Report (Description)

The activity titled “Useful Clothes Donation to Latur Kapda Bank” was successfully conducted with active participation of 36 students and faculty members. The initiative aimed to promote social responsibility and support underprivileged communities by collecting and donating usable clothing. Participants enthusiastically contributed a variety of clean and wearable clothes, demonstrating a strong sense of compassion and community service. The collected items were organized and handed over to the Latur Kapda Bank for further distribution to those in need.
